A training school for the Ministry of the Interior is located at Simeonovo (N42-37, E23-20) in the former American College buildings. the following courses are given during the year:

- a. A three month course dealing with political problems is presented to approximately 100 officers of the Internal Security Forces;
- b. A similar course is also given for Frontier Force officers, which is normally attended by 30-40 officers;
- c. A seven to eight month course for intelligence or security officers is offered. Participants, who usually number 50-60 for each session, do not wear uniforms; and
- d. Occasionally special training courses (subjects unknown) are held. There are usually from five to fifteen persons in attendance, dressed in mufti. They do not stay at the training center, but are taken back and forth to Simeonovo by cars belonging to various government offices.
